
In the final moments of 19-century playwright Henrik Ibsen's A Doll's House, Nora makes the stunning decision to leave her husband and children to begin a life on her own. This climatic event—when Nora slams the door on everything in her life—instantly drove world drama into the modern age.

This original new American play, written by Lucas Hnath (off-Broadway's The Christians; Red Speedo), continues where Ibsen's masterpiece left off. After many years since Nora left, there's a knock on that same door...and Nora has returned. A DOLL'S HOUSE, PART 2 explores the question of why she has returned and what it will mean for those she left behind.

Tony Award® winner Sam Gold (Fun Home) directs an all-star cast, including Tony nominee and Emmy winner Laurie Metcalf (TV's Roseanne; Broadway's Misery), Academy Award® winner Chris Cooper (the film Adaptation), Tony winner Jayne Houdyshell (The Humans) and Tony nominee Condola Rashed (Stick Fly; The Trip to Bountiful).
