

A Doll's House

PART 2

EIGHT 2017 TONY AWARD NOMINATIONS,
INCLUDING BEST PLAY

“The BEST PLAY of the Broadway season”

—The New York Times; Los Angeles Times

In the final moments of 19-century playwright Henrik Ibsen’s A Doll’s House, Nora makes the stunning decision to leave her husband and children to begin a life on her own. This climatic event—when Nora slams the door on everything in her life—instantly drove world drama into the modern age.

This original new American play, written by Lucas Hnath (off-Broadway’s The Christians; Red Speedo), continues where Ibsen’s masterpiece left off. After many years since Nora left, there’s a knock on that same door...and Nora has returned. A DOLL’S HOUSE, PART 2 explores the question of why she has returned and what it will mean for those she left behind.

Tony Award® winner Sam Gold (Fun Home) directs an all-star cast, including Tony winner Julie White (The Little Dog Laughed), Tony nominee Stephen McKinley Henderson (Fences, Jitney), Tony winner Jayne Houdyshell (The Humans) and Erin Wilhelmi (The Crucible).

GOLDEN THEATRE
252 West 45th Street
New York, NY 10036

Groups 10+
Opened April 27, 2017
Limited Engagement through January 7, 2018
Running Time 1 hour, 30 minutes, with no intermission

GreatWhiteWay.com
(212) 757-9117 | (888) 517-0112