

This new musical follows the life of legend James Cagney from his modest beginnings on Manhattan's Lower East Side through his rise as a vaudeville song-and-dance man and, ultimately, to his enormous fame in Hollywood. The score combines new original show-stopping song and dance numbers with George M. Cohan familiar classics, such as "Give My Regards To Broadway," "Yankee Doodle Dandy" and "Grand Old Flag."

Leading a cast of six, Robert Creighton (The Mystery of Edwin Drood, Anything Goes, The Lion King) not only stars as Cagney but also co-wrote the music and lyrics with Christopher McGovern. CAGNEY is written by Peter Colley, with direction by Bill Castellino (Storyville, Jolson) and choreography by Joshua Bergasse (On the Town, TV's Smash).

"Robert Creighton is born for the role. When the actors put on their tap shoes in choreographer Joshua Bergasse's rousing numbers like "You're a Grand Old Flag" and "Over There," you may want to buy war bonds!"
