The York Theatre Co. launches its 50th anniversary season with this blockbuster musical!

Based on Carl Reiner's autobiographical novel and Joseph Stein's stage adaptation, ENTER LAUGHING: THE MUSICAL takes us through the misadventures of David Kolowitz, a star-struck, stage-struck, woman-struck teenager who journeys into manhood via the theatre. Along the way, he meets a zany cast of characters, including an abundance of girlfriends.

This hilarious musical is the perfect show for anyone who has ever had a dream of stardom, a song in their heart or a laugh in their soul.

See musical comedy at its best!
A heartfelt, side-splitting laugh-fest!
