

Derived from tales by Sholem Aleichem, this legendary musical returns to Broadway this fall. The story revolves around a father, Tevye, and his family, and his efforts to uphold his Jewish traditions amidst a changing world. He must cope with his three oldest daughters' strong-minded actions while dangerous forces threaten to destroy the life to which he has become accustomed and which he is desperately trying to preserve.

The show is packed with upbeat, classic, memorable, beloved songs, including “Tradition,” “Matchmaker, Matchmaker,” “If I Were a Rich Man,” “To Life,” “Miracle of Miracles” and “Sunrise, Sunset.”

Written by Joseph Stein with music by Jerry Bock and lyrics by Sheldon Harnick, the production has a concept and choreography based on the original by Jerome Robbins. Tony Award® nominee Bartlett Sher (The King and I, South Pacific) will direct a cast starring Tony nominee Danny Burstein (Cabaret, South Pacific, The Drowsy Chaperone) as Tevye.
