

GROUNDHOG DAY THE MUSICAL

BOOK BY DANNY RUBIN MUSIC & LYRICS BY TIM MINCHIN DIRECTED BY MATTHEW WARCHUS

After a critically acclaimed run in London where it garnered five-star reviews, a musical version of the successful movie comes to the Great White Way! Two-time Tony Award® nominee Andy Karl (On the Twentieth Century, Rocky) is expected to reprise his triumphant London-starring role as Phil Connors, a cynical Pittsburgh TV weather reporter who is sent on assignment to cover the annual Groundhog Day event in Punxsutawney, PA. There, he finds himself forced to relive the same day again and again...and again...until he gets it right!

This musical comedy reunites the award-winning creative team of “Matilda”—composer/lyricist Tim Minchin, director Matthew Warchus and choreographer Peter Darling. They are joined by book writer Danny Rubin, who co-wrote the screenplay. According to director Warchus, GROUNDHOG DAY is “a show full of intellect, integrity and wit, insight, humor—and of course romance.”

“This one will run and run. And run. And run...”

—Matt Trueman, Variety

“It is cool (as in hip) and warm (as in cuddly); it is spiky and sentimental.”

—Ben Brantley, The New York Times
