

HARRY TOWNSEND'S LAST STAND

A COMEDY WITH HEART ABOUT FATHERS & SONS

LEN CARIOU

CRAIG BIERKO

Tony Award® winner Len Cariou (Sweeney Todd, A Little Night Music, Applause, "Blue Bloods") and Tony nominee Craig Bierko (The Music Man) star in this new play about an 85-year-old widower living alone in Vermont. While he still possesses a sharp mind and a dry wit, he is getting up there in age. Beside his daughter, his one happiness in his life is his son, who is coming home after an 18-month absence. His return, however, is accompanied by an agenda that puts him at odds with his father.

HARRY TOWNSEND'S LAST STAND deals with complex family dynamics, passion, humor and the shorthand of communication that people have with those close to them.

This comedy with heart is written by George Eastman (The Snow Job, Bitter Exchange) and directed by Karen Carpenter (Love, Loss and What I Wore).
