

KUPFERBERG CENTER FOR THE ARTS

65-30 Kissena Blvd,
Flushing, New York 11367

Johnny Mathis

Sunday, October 26th, 2014 | 7:00 pm

.....

An Evening with Gladys Knight

Friday, November 7th, 2014 | 8:00 pm

.....

The great ones endure, and Gladys Knight has long been one of the greatest. Very few singers over the last fifty years have matched her unassailable artistry. This seven-time Grammy winner has enjoyed #1 hits in Pop, Gospel, R&B and Adult Contemporary, and has triumphed in film, television, and live performance.

Gladys Knight achieved icon status with the Pips, having recorded some of the most memorable songs of the 1960s, 1970s and 1980s. The Motown legend has recorded beloved countless gold-certified singles like "Neither One of Us (Wants to be the First to Say Goodbye)," "I've Got to Use My Imagination," "Best Thing to Ever Happen to Me," the #1 smash "Midnight Train to Georgia," and the classic "That's What Friends are For."

Known as the "Empress of Soul," Gladys Knight was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1996 and received a "Lifetime Achievement Award" at the 2004 BET Awards ceremony. Her performance at Colden Auditorium is sure to be an unforgettable experience, featuring timeless music from one of Motown's leading ladies.

Moscow State Symphony Orchestra

Saturday, November 15th, 2014 | 8:00 pm

"The MSSO might well be the world's least-heralded great orchestra." – Los Angeles Times

Featuring violin soloist Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg and celebrated conductor Pavel Kogan, the Moscow State Symphony Orchestra is renowned for its wonderful performances of works of the greatest composers of our time. The orchestra balances orchestral, operatic, and choral classics with equally significant music of the 21st century, including many forgotten and neglected pieces.

The Orchestra's performance at Kupferberg Center will include performances of Tchaikovsky's Romeo and Juliet Overture-Fantasy, Bruch, Violin Concerto No. 1 in G minor, Op. 26 featuring Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg, and Brahms' Symphony No. 4 in E minor, Op. 98.

~ Vienna Boys Choir ~

Sunday, December 7th, 2014 | 3:00 pm

The spirit of the Christmas season comes to life when the angelic voices of the delightful Vienna Boys' Choir rise together in song for their joyous holiday concert! This celebrated choir performs a program of classical and popular music that includes traditional Christmas carols, Gregorian chants, songs from around the world, and popular holiday favorites. For over half a millennium the Vienna Boys' Choir has won the hearts and the ears of the world with their enthralling harmonies, expansive repertoire, and cherubic presence. Many great composers have collaborated with the choir throughout the centuries – Franz Schubert himself was even a chorister. This spectacular concert is a heartwarming evening of music for the entire family to enjoy.

Dance Theatre of Harlem

Sunday, January 18th, 2015 | 4:00 pm

Dance Theatre of Harlem consists of 18 racially diverse dancers, known worldwide for bringing a contemporary flair to classical and neo-classical ballet repertoire. Now 44 years old, the company remains committed to artistic excellence and to reaching new audiences with a powerful message of self-reliance, artistic relevance and individual responsibility.

Cesar Millan

Sunday, April 19th, 2015 | 3:00 pm

Cesar Millan will reveal the secrets of happier, healthier relationships between humans and their canine companions in his exciting live show. Joined by his famous four-legged companion, Junior, Cesar will share his philosophies and methods, then present examples via live demonstrations with multiple dogs. From his years of experience, Cesar will show that for a transformation to take place in a dog, the real transformation quite often needs to take place in their human companion first. You'll be amazed and inspired by the simplicity with which Cesar's Way can bring harmony and balance into your and your dog's lives. See the star of NatGeo WILD's brand new series Cesar 911 and the original host of National Geographic's Dog Whisperer perform his incredible dog training techniques, LIVE!

