

LIFE OF PI

WINNER OF FIVE OLIVIER AWARDS, INCLUDING BEST NEW PLAY

After a cargo ship sinks in the middle of the Pacific Ocean, a sixteen-year-old boy named Pi is left stranded on a lifeboat with the most unlikely of companions: a hyena, a zebra, an orangutan and a 450-pound Royal Bengal tiger. With time and nature against them, they must learn to trust one another if they are to survive.

Based on Yann Martel's best-selling novel, this awe-inspiring new theatrical adaptation of an epic tale of strength and hope "will make you believe in the power of theater."
(The Times of London)

This tense quest for survival chronicles an "unmissable, extraordinary journey."
(The Guardian)
