MISS Saigon

AND SPEAKS DIRECTLY TO THE TIMES WE LIVE IN.
MAGNIFICENT PERFORMANCES.”

This legendary musical, inspired by Puccini's opera Madame Butterfly, is an epic love story that tells the tragic account of a doomed romance between an American GI stationed in Saigon and an orphaned Vietnamese bar girl at the end of the Vietnam war.

Written by the creators of Les Misérables, Claude-Michel Schönberg and Alain Boublil, with lyrics by Boublil and Richard Maltby, Jr., with additional lyrics by American lyricist Michael Mahler and directed by Laurence Connor (School of Rock, Les Misérables), this production contains some revisions to the original book, a new song and a new, grittier look.

Don't miss MISS SAIGON – a story even more relevant today than it was when it was first staged 26 years ago!
