MUSICAL THEATRE GEMS IN STAGED CONCERT PERFORMANCES

MUSICALS IN MUFTI are musical theatre gems, performed in a simply-staged, book-in-hand concert format, and are part of the Muftis' 25th historic year of presenting shows from the past that deserve a second look. Mufti means "in street clothes, without the trappings associated with a full production."

Celebrating the centennial of Alan Jay Lerner, The York Theatre Company is proud to announce that its acclaimed MUSICALS IN MUFTI series will celebrate the work of the legendary librettist and lyricist Alan Jay Lerner, one of the creators behind such classics as Brigadoon, Camelot, Love Life and My Fair Lady.

The 2019 Winter MUSICALS IN MUFTI series celebrates Lerner with a look at three of his musicals: Carmelina, Dance a Little Closer and Lolita, My Love.
