

SAINT JOAN

Three-time Tony Award® nominee Condola Rashad (A Doll's House, Part 2; The Trip to Bountiful; Stick Fly) stars as Joan of Arc, one of history's greatest heroines. This new staging of Nobel Prize in Literature and Academy Award winner Bernard Shaw's masterpiece is directed by multiple Tony nominee and winner Daniel Sullivan (Proof; Lillian Hellman's The Little Foxes; Rabbit Hole).

Set in 15th century France, SAINT JOAN concerns a country girl whose mystifying visions of saints drive her into elite circles. She finds herself on trial for her life after the nation's rulers become threatened by her popularity and influence and unite to bring her down, ultimately betraying her.

This timeless and compelling play dramatizes the limits of an individual in a society ruled by overwhelming political and religious forces.
