

SIGNIFICANT OTHER

“A tenderly unromantic romantic comedy, as richly funny as it is ultimately heart-stirring.” –The New York Times

Is finding “the one” the only path to happiness? This hilarious and heart-wrenching new play delves into the trenches of single life in the city, following a young man who longs for his Mr. Right, but discovers that’s easier said than done. He spends many lonely nights with his close-knit girlfriends as they navigate love and friendship in the twenty-something years, eventually finding that supporting the ones you love can be just as impossible as finding love itself.

Most of the cast, including Lindsay Mendez (Wicked, Godspell), Gideon Glick (Spring Awakening, Spiderman: Turn Off the Dark) and theatre, film and TV actress Barbara Barrie, reprise their roles from the successful off-Broadway run of this play.

SIGNIFICANT OTHER is a lot like life--sometimes absurd, sometimes honest and full of humor--which reminds us you can’t hurry love!
