WITH ARMIE HAMMER, TOM SKERRITT

Armie Hammer (Call Me By Your Name, The Social Network) makes his Broadway debut alongside Emmy Award winner Tom Skerritt (Picket Fences, Brothers & Sisters) in this “fascinating and inquisitive new play” (The New York Times).

A widower has gathered his three adult sons to their Midwest family home to celebrate the Christmas holidays with him--with matching pajamas, cheerful trash-talking and Chinese takeout! But when a question they can't answer disrupts their holiday merriment, they are forced to face their own identities.

Obie Award-winning playwright Young Jean Lee, the first Asian-American female playwright to be produced on Broadway, takes a hilariously callous look at the classic American father-son drama. Tony winner Anna D. Shapiro (August: Osage County) directs. This is one white Christmas like you've never seen before.
