"A BIG-BONED, SKINNY-ASS, ALL-YOU-CAN-LAUGH NEW PLAY"

stuffed

Lisa Lampanelli, known for her racy insult comedy, brings her saucy voice and humor to the New York stage in her first foray into theater.

A lifelong yo-yo dieter, a bulimic, a confident overweight gal, and a permanent size zero who can't gain weight walk into a play…and what happens next could only be dished up by this comedy superstar. Lampanelli and a supporting cast of three women delve into the convoluted world of our connection with food. What could be more comical than that?

STUFFED brings together their stories in a witty fashion addressing questions such as: Is eating an ice cream sandwich in the shower as emotionally fulfilling as it sounds? When it comes to jeans, what's better—muffin top or camel toe? And if Oprah can't conquer her food issues, what can the rest of us do but laugh as we try?

Written by and starring Lisa Lampanelli, a two-time Grammy Award nominee for Best Comedy Album, STUFFED features Marsha Stephanie Blake (Orange Is The New Black), Nikki Blonsky (Hairspray film) and Eden Malyn (House of Lies).

"STUFFED offers LAUGHS, and even a bit of INSIGHT…
Lampanelli's comedian-mode storytelling is her STRONGEST, FUNNIEST and MOST AFFECTING WORK."
