

“It’s as if we never said goodbye.”

Three-time Tony Award® winner and six-time Academy Award nominee Glenn Close returns to Broadway as Norma Desmond, the role for which she won a 1995 Tony Award® as Best Performance by a Leading Actress in a Musical.

The story focuses on a faded silent-screen star who lives in the past in her ornate, decaying mansion on Sunset Blvd. When a young screenwriter accidentally enters her isolated world, she uses him to help revive her career. He is lured into her lavish life-style and “becomes entrapped in a claustrophobic world until his love for another woman leads him to try and break free with dramatic consequences.”

Based on the 1950 Academy Award-winning film, the production features music by Andrew Lloyd Webber, book and lyrics by Don Black and Christopher Hampton and direction by Lonny Price, who also directed the recent successful engagement at the English National Opera in London’s West End. The glorious score includes “With One Look,” “The Perfect Year,” “As If We Never Said Goodbye” and, of course, the title song--all made more magnificent by a 40-piece orchestra, the largest in Broadway history.
