DENZEL WASHINGTON RETURNS TO THE GREAT WHITE WAY!

Star of stage and screen Denzel Washington, Oscar and Tony Award® winner, returns to Broadway in a new production of Eugene O'Neill's classic THE ICEMAN COMETH.

The play is set in a New York saloon and focuses on its many downhearted alcoholic patrons who live on the fringes of society. They come to life only during the semi-annual visits of a charismatic traveling hardware salesman, Theodore “Hickey” Hickman, who brings some relief from their hopelessness and despair. As his new sobriety changes his own outlook on life, it threatens to disrupt the lives of his friends, leading to humorous and heartbreaking events.

Five-time Tony Award® winner (two as a director, three as a producer) George C. Wolfe (Shuffle Along, The Normal Heart, Angels in America) directs this masterpiece, one of Eugene O'Neill's most complex plays, consisting of four acts.

O'Neill, a multiple Pulitzer Prize winner, was the first American playwright to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature. His many distinguished works include Long Day's Journey into Night, A Moon for the Misbegotten, Ab, Wilderness! and Anna Christie. THE ICEMAN COMETH, written in 1939 and premiering on Broadway in 1946, examines man's need to cling to hope for a better life.
