

THE PLAY THAT GOES WRONG

WINNER OF LONDON'S
2015 OLIVIER AWARD FOR BEST NEW COMEDY

“A GUT-BUSTING HIT! I ROARED!”

--The New York Times

An uproarious comedy about an amateur university drama group that attempts to put on a complicated play which goes miserably awry...Welcome to opening night of the Cornley Polytechnic Drama Society's production, The Murder at Haversham Manor. This 1920s whodunit has everything you never wanted in a production – a leading lady with a concussion, a corpse that can't play dead and a decrepit set. It's a classic murder mystery... and it's a mystery how it ever got to Broadway! And the London cast is coming along!

This hysterical show-within-a-show with expert comic timing is ridiculously funny, completely out of control, and everything that can go wrong does! You'll be rolling in the aisles with uncontainable laughter...so bring tissues to wipe away your tears!

THE PLAY THAT GOES WRONG is a celebration of the best of live theater...and the worst!
