AT BROOKLYN ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Oscar Isaac (Scenes from a Marriage, Hamlet, Star Wars) and Rachel Brosnahan (The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel, Dead for a Dollar, Othello) star in Lorraine Hansberry's (A Raisin in the Sun) sweeping drama of identity, idealism, and love.

Set in 1960s Greenwich Village, THE SIGN IN SIDNEY BRUSTEIN'S WINDOW is a razor-sharp portrait of a diverse group of friends whose progressive dreams can't quite match reality. At the center are Sidney and Iris Brustein, fighting to see if their marriage—with all its crackling wit, passion, and petty cruelty—can survive Sidney's ideals.

Decades after her death, "Lorraine Hansberry's play remains a powerful call to action. This imaginatively staged, passionately acted production does justice to her political vision." (Entertainment Weekly)

Discover this "astonishing force" (The Chicago Tribune) from one of America's greatest playwrights when it finally returns to Broadway for the first time in more than 50 years.
