

Picnic

“There's a charge crackling in the sultry Kansas air.”

-- New York Magazine

William Inge's Pulitzer Prize-winning play PICNIC returns to Broadway in this mesmerizing new production directed by Sam Gold (Look Back in Anger, Seminar). When a handsome drifter arrives, his charms threaten to disrupt sleepy town life for Madge and her friends.

Academy Award® winner Ellen Burstyn stars with Reed Birney (The Dream of the Burning Boy), Elizabeth Marvel (Other Desert Cities), and rising stars Maggie Grace (“Lost”), Sebastian Stan (“Gossip Girl”), Emmy® Award winner Mare Winningham, Madeleine Martin (August: Osage County) and Ben Rappaport (Hope Springs).

AMERICAN AIRLINES THEATRE

227 West 42nd Street

Groups 10+

New York, NY 10036

Opened January 13, 2013

Closing February 24, 2013

Running time 2 hours, 5 minutes

GreatWhiteWay.com

(212) 757-9117 | (888) 517-0112