

PRAYER for the FRENCH REPUBLIC

WRITTEN BY JOSHUA HARMON

DIRECTED BY DAVID CROMER

Winner of the 2022 Drama Desk and Outer Critics Circle Awards for Best New Off-Broadway Play, Joshua Harmon's drama arrives on Broadway after Manhattan Theatre Club's highly praised, sold-out run. Tony Award® winner David Cromer (The Band's Visit) directs this acclaimed work by the author of Bad Jews and Significant Other.

In 1944, a Jewish couple in Paris desperately awaits news of their missing family. More than 70 years later, the couple's great-grandchildren find themselves facing the same question as their ancestors: "Are we safe?"

Following five generations of a French Jewish family, PRAYER FOR THE FRENCH REPUBLIC examines history, home and the effects of an ancient hatred. The New York Times proclaims it "thought-provoking, heart-wrenching and wickedly funny."
