

Tony Award® and Emmy winner DAVID HYDE PIERCE (Curtains; Hello, Dolly!; TV's "Frasier") and Tony nominee RAMIN KARIMLOO (Les Misérables; Funny Girl) lead the crew in this must-see reimagining of the Gilbert and Sullivan classic.

This jazzy-bluesy update to the beloved operetta is set in New Orleans in an outrageously imaginative romp sizzling with Caribbean rhythms and French Quarter flair. With the tongue-twisting Major-General (Pierce), the rabble-rousing Pirate King (Karimloo), newly-imagined young lovers, daring daughters, footloose pirates and fleet-footed police, a shipload of musical comedy delights awaits on board to impress first-timers and Gilbert & Sullivan aficionados alike.

The all-star creative team includes Tony nominees director Scott Ellis (Tootsie; Doubt; Kiss Me, Kate) and choreographer Warren Carlyle (The Music Man; Harmony; Kiss Me, Kate). The hilarious new adaptation is by Tony Award® winner Rupert Holmes (The Mystery of Edwin Drood; Curtains).
